WELCOME TO THE COAHOMA 150

WELCOME TO THE COAHOMOA 150! Located just outside Clarksdale, Mississippi, this 150± acre recreational property is positioned within the famous Little Sunflower Brake, one of the Mississippi Delta's most respected regions for duck and deer hunting. From the moment you enter the Coahoma County property via the gravel access road, it becomes clear that this tract was designed with serious outdoorsmen in mind.

The land is mostly wooded, offering excellent bedding, natural browse, and year-round cover for wildlife. Multiple established deer food plots are already in place, creating dependable whitetail movement throughout the season. Waterfowl hunters will appreciate the multiple timber and willow holes strategically positioned across the property, taking full advantage of the area's proven flyway.

MORE ABOUT THE COAHOMA 150

Along the southern and western boundaries, a levee system provides valuable water control and protection. During the flooded winter months, boat lanes allow smooth navigation to hunting areas, making this a true turnkey Delta hunting experience.

Situated in a region where properties rarely become available, this tract offers exceptional opportunity for hunting, recreation, and long-term land investment.
