MORE ABOUT THE LINCOLN 59

In addition to its potential residential appeal, the Lincoln 59 also serves as an outstanding recreational and hunting property, with a strong history of trophy whitetail deer harvested on the land. The cover and location create an ideal habitat for wildlife. The young pine timber is still small enough to make the place your own by adding internal and external roads and shaping food plots to your liking.

Whether you're looking to build your dream home, enjoy recreational hunting, or secure a long-term land investment, the Lincoln 59 is a strong choice!
